

NONMEDICAL USE OR ABUSE OF DRUGS OR ALCOHOL

The District's posture in dealing with employees who engage in the nonmedical use of drugs and/or the abuse of alcohol is to be one of constructive confrontation in a supportive environment and supportive relationship. This approach is based on the following premises:

- Each employee is responsible for the employee's own actions.
- Each employee is a role model for students.
- Each employee who seeks help is to be given the opportunity to do so in a supportive environment.
- The District shall not ignore employee problems.
- Constructive confrontation will be utilized to make employees aware of opportunities and choices for help.
- Efforts to maintain confidentiality will be made by the District.
- Outside referrals to nonschool personnel will be provided, at employee expense, to employees who indicate an interest.
- Employees will be required to provide information on progress in dealing with problems.
- Supervisory staff members will receive orientation on methods of constructive confrontation.
- Opportunities for self-referral will be provided.
- As recommended by outside professional sources, the District will consider support to an employee during reentry into the workplace.
- The District's right to intervene is based on (1) a basic concern for the health and welfare of the persons whom it employs and (2) the right to expect quality job performance.
- School employees are human and should not be considered any less vulnerable or immune to human stress than any other person.
- In spite of the above, school employees whose nonmedical use of drugs or use of alcohol endangers the health and safety of students or other employees may of necessity be dealt with summarily.
