

Resources for Integrating Technology with Social Studies

Name	Description	URL
National Geographic Education	This site houses many resources focused on social studies, including interactive activities, lesson plans, maps, and information about grant opportunities.	http://www.nationalgeographic.com/education/
Utah Education Network	In the K-12 Educator section of this website, you will find lesson plans, student interactives, rubric tools, and much more.	http://www.uen.org/k12educator/
NOVA Teachers	There are a variety of resources available at this site, but some of the most exciting are the interactive activities. To access the interactive lessons, select teacher's guide by subject and then click the plus sign, under interactives for students, that matches the subject area you are interested in.	http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/nova/teachers/
Scholastic Online Activities	This segment of the Scholastic site includes online activities in a variety of subject areas and grade levels.	http://teacher.scholastic.com/activities/
JournalScape	A free online journal or blog that can be public, private, or password protected. This is a great tool for sharing and discussing current events with students.	http://www.journalscape.com
WildCam Africa	Live streaming video of African animals at Pete's Pond in Botswana, made possible by National Geographic.	http://www9.nationalgeographic.com/ngm/wildcamafrika/index.html
WebQuest Page	This WebQuest portal allows you to search or find a WebQuest by grade level, subject area, or topic.	http://webquest.org/
Discovery Educator Network	The Discovery Educator Network web site is a place for educators to share ideas, as they connect with other educators from all over the world. The website also offers a variety of resources that are available at varying levels of access.	http://www.discoveryeducatornetwork.com/
