

*Please send your Tax Credit dollars to
Camp Colton before
December 31st*

Participating in the Arizona State School Tax Credit Program allows you to choose where your tax dollars are spent, giving you the power to impact the future of Camp Colton. Generating annual operating support for Camp Colton is a community effort and is dependent upon funds provided by THIS Tax Credit program, FUSD, individual donors and the Friends of Camp Colton. The Arizona State School Tax Credit program allows married couples filing a joint return to receive a tax credit of up to $400 and up to $200 for those filing individual returns. Tax credit donations provide essential support for Camp Colton and allow its programs to remain free-of-cost for all FUSD sixth grade students.

Why Camp Colton?

Camp Colton is FUSD's residential environmental education program for sixth graders. Created in 1971 by educators and community members, Camp Colton introduces children to the natural environment and increases their understanding of science and ecology through hands-on outdoor experiences. Teambuilding and other character development objectives are also a part of the Camp experience. As a result of attending Camp Colton, students form a deeper appreciation for the natural environment, expand scientific understandings, experience personal growth, and create lasting memories. Camp Colton has served over 40,000 children since it began and was awarded the Arizona Daily Sun's Organization of the Year in 2011.

How to Participate?

Write a check to a school of your choice and designate "Camp Colton" in the memo line. Mail or deliver your check to FUSD by December 31st. Tax Credit donations are also accepted on line at www.fusd1.org/Page/129 (click a school and designate "Camp Colton" in the description field on the payment page). A receipt will be sent to you to verify your contribution. Then, simply claim your tax credit donation on your Arizona State tax return. Your entire contribution can be designated to Camp Colton or can be split between different schools and/or programs.
