

SOARR facilitates student success through academic, social and cultural engagement.

- Power is shared
- Culture counts
- Relationships and connectedness are fundamental
- Learning is interactive and dialogic

*A team of educators from Flagstaff High School collaborated with educators from Kinlani Bordertown Dormitory, Flagstaff Unified School District and Northern Arizona University to envision SOARR

Stewards
Observing and Advocating Relational
Responsiveness (SOARR)

SOARR members extend deep gratitude to Hine Waitere, our Maori consultant, who guided and inspired this work. And great thanks to Kia Eke Panuku, 2013, that provided foundational knowledge to our understandings of how and why to engage and continue this critical work.