Academic Misconduct/Dishonesty: Academic misconduct/dishonesty can include, but is not limited to cheating, forgery, lying and plagiarism. Examples that could apply include: (1) Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise or assignment. Fabrication involves the falsification or invention of any information or citation in an academic exercise or assignment; (2) Using the signature or initials of another person; (3) Knowingly giving false or misleading information, including false accusations against others with the intent to deceive; (4) Using another's words, ideas, materials or work without acknowledging and documenting the source. Students are responsible for knowing the rules governing the use of another's work and for acknowledging and documenting the source appropriately. In addition to disciplinary action, students may face academic sanctions which may include but are not limited to receiving a zero on an assignment, grade of "F" for a class, or withdrawal from the class during the academic year.
